

The Paramedic Method

Sentences for Revision

1. The decision was made by my boss yesterday.
2. Their motives were applauded by us, but their wisdom was doubted.
3. Controlling the quality and level of television shows that children watch is a continuing challenge to parents that they must meet on a daily basis.
4. In this paragraph is a demonstration of the use of persuasive style in the writing of a report.
5. The first step in a police investigation is for police to ask questions to the parents and children in a family to find out what happened.
6. The vision of composition that emerges from John Dewey is grounded in a relationship of experience and communication that is mediated by the practice of mind.
7. The impact of the shortage of paper in the publishing industry is that it is not a short term problem but will be with us for some time to come and can seriously affect the number of books produced by the industry.